Circular Letter No. 45.

Subject: SELLING OF BOOKS AND OTHER SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

To Supervisors of Schools.-

You are hereby instructed to the effect that Supervisors of Schools, Principals or classroom teachers should not act as agents for the selling of books, decoration material or any king of school supplies.

Every possible precaution should be taken to avoid that school children be compelled to unnecessary expenditure in composition books or any other school supplies. The common school paper should be used for ordinary daily work. Composition books may be used for special work.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) JUAN B. HUYKE,
Commissioner of Education.
